PREMIER MARTIN MAKES APPEAL FOR HALIFAX AID

Matter Is Brought Up on Floor of the Legislature by the First Minister

A strong appeal to the people of Saskatchewan to rally to the relief of the unfortunate residents of Halifax, who have lost not only friends and relatives but who are suffering from the loss of real and personal property, and many of whom are in dire straits, was made by Premier Martin on the floor of the legislative assembly yesterday morning.

The government has received offers of co-operation and assistance from the various patriotic organizations operating in Saskatchewan and the government itself will act as a central committee with the Hon. Chas. Dunning, provincial treasurer as trustee for all funds collected in the province for this purpose and subscriptions gathered by the various organizations as well as donations made direct by private individuals may be addressed to Chas. A. Dunning, provincial treasurer (Halifax Fund), legislative

In making this appeal for a generous response to the call for assistance from the stricken maritime city, Mr.
Martin said that the question, so far as this province was concerned, hinged on what was the proper organization to carry out the work of collection.
He pointed out that while many of the patriotic organizations in the province were ready to co-operate, there was a necessity for some central organization, and for that reason the government had decided to act as a clearing house. He asked for the cooperation of the newspapers in giving the matter the fullest publicity and suggested that the newspapers themselves might help along the work by opening up subscription lists.

The premier also announced that the government would make a contribution to the relief fund though he was not prepared at present to state the amount of the donation.

PRINCE ALBERT, Dec. 11.—Mrs. J.
A. Newham, wife of the Bishop of Saskatchewan, has been elected to the municipal hospital board, being the first woman elected to a municipal office in this city.

HER DALY TATES VIEWS ON ELECTION

Statement in Holy Rosary Cathedral Disclaiming Inter- ference by the Church

PLORES DISSENSION

Recommendation Made Is to Be Calmness and Modera- tion in Expressing Views

Friday at the services at the Holy Rosary cathedral Rev. G. Daly, C.S.S.R., made a statement to his congregation regarding their duty in the voting on December 17. The reverend father beat that silence on his part might be interpreted and taken either as favoring one side or the other made his views clear as a priest of the church, following statement:

Canada is in the throes of a federal election; excitement is intense throughout the country. You may be expecting to hear today a statement as regards the duty at the present hour. Religion itself is tried to be made a lever for one or the other purpose. As religion may be misinterpreted and as favoring one or the other side find it my duty to tell you in this the view point of the church. The issue is a political one and I understand here "political" in its broadest sense. The church, therefore, wishes her children free to vote as they wish. Although most deeply interested in the welfare of the country, and anxious for the victory of our arms, we wish her children free as to the duty to be adopted. Religion is a matter of politics and belongs to a higher plane. No priest is allowed to use his influence in a purely political matter. He may have his personal feelings and opinions in the matter; like any citizen he is allowed to discuss the issue before the people and vote as his duty tells him. He is allowed to lead his people only in spiritual matters and in political questions, of their nature involve religious only recommendation I would like to be calm and moderate in expression and forwarding of one's views. We are at a very critical stage in our history. The country is like a volcano. It is not with heated words and above all with appeal to religious and religious prejudices that we can have unity of action so necessary

REGINA CITY LIKELY TO VOTE $5,000 TO HALIFAX SUFFERERS

At the next special committee meeting of the Regina city council, the question of voting a sum toward the relief fund of the city of Halifax will be under consideration. Mayor Cowan last evening stated that he was of the opinion that the city should vote $5,000 for this purpose. His worship stated that the awfulness of the disaster had gripped everyone, and it was almost impossible to put it from one's mind.

In view of the municipal elections being held today, his worship stated that it might be impossible to hold a meeting of the special committee today. In that event, the meeting would be called for Tuesday morning when the question of voting a sum to the relief of the Halifax sufferers would be dealt with.

POINTS FOR UNION GOVERNMENT ARE MADE IN SERMON

Rev. A. S. Lewis, of First Baptist Church, Deals With Subject Capably

Rev. A. S. Lewis, pastor of First Baptist church, delivered a strong sermon last evening dealing with the issues in the Dominion campaign, and outlined a number of reasons why the Union government should be supported by the electors. Rev. Mr. Lewis dealt with his subject without gloves, emphasizing the point that the present unsettled state of world affairs demanded a government which had in it the strongest men, the brightest intellects, and the best brains of both parties. He doubted if either old party was equal to the situation which now confronted the Canadian people.

The institutions of Canada were in transition, said the speaker. Before the war everyone was concerned with material pursuits, but never was the note of self forgetfulness so dominant as at the present time. A new spirit had taken possession of men and women. The thrill of pain in the disaster which had overtaken Halifax, had extended from the Atlantic to the Pacific and to the peoples of the

Premier Martin Issues To the People Regard to

To the People of Saskatchewan:

"I desire very briefly, for the purpose of discharging a duty which I owe to the people of the province, to state my views with regard to the Dominion election campaign. In doing so I wish it to be distinctly understood that I am not attempting to bind any member of the government of Saskatchewan or any Liberal member of the legislature; each one of these men is entitled to his views and at full liberty to act in the way which he deems in the best interests of the country.

"The present is not the time for the consideration of questions of party politics; it is entirely immaterial which political party is in power provided the war effort of Canada is carried on in an honest and business-like way and to the capacity of our resources. I should think that the history of the past three years would have so disgusted the people of this country with patronage and government for the benefit of one political party that they would gladly grasp the opportunity of at least giving a trial to a government composed of men of both political parties.

"I have always been in favor of the principle of the union of parties during the war; coalition should have been offered by Sir Robert Borden and the Conservative party long before it was; it should have at least been offered when the duration of parliament was extended early in 1916 but at that time the Conservative party thought more of retaining patronage and appointments than they did of creating unity in the country. Very recently, however, a union has been consummated. I stated at the time of its formation and on several occasions since that I favored it; I reached the conclusion I did after the most thoughtful consideration and I have not changed my mind.

"It is stated that the new government is still a Tory government. As to this I can only say that my long personal acquaintance with almost all of the Liberals who have entered that government leads me to the conclusion that it is very representative of the Liberal party with the single exception that Sir Wilfrid Laurier is not included. At this point let me state that Hon. J. A. Calder entered the government after a consideration extending over a period of weeks during which time he displayed the greatest anxiety and when he finally reached a decision he did so with the utmost sincerity of which a man is capable.

"In its brief history the Union government, I think, has already more than justified its formation. Many things

Benzol Over Picric

"On top of the forward deck were stored about twenty barrels of benzol, over the picric acid with a steel deck in between.

"It was a clear morning. The water was smooth and we were at half speed on the starboard side toward the Bedford Basin. There were no vessels in our course until we sighted the Belgian relief ship Imo coming out of Bedford Basin and headed for the Dartmouth shore. She was more than two miles away at the time. We signalled we would keep the Mont Blanc on the starboard tack going up to the Basin, where we were to anchor. We headed a little more inshore so as to make clear to the Imo our purpose. She signalled that she was coming down on the port, which would bring her on the same side with us. We were keeping to the right or starboard, according to pilotage rules, and could not understand what the Imo meant. But we kept on our course, hoping that she would come down, as she should, on the starboard side, which would keep her on the Halifax side of the harbor and the Mont Blanc on the Dartmouth side.

Saw Danger Coming

"But to our surprise the Imo kept coming down on the port side, so we signalled again. We saw there was danger of a collision, and signalled to the picric acid was, a substance which would not explode, rather than have her strike where the T.N.T. was stored.

Benzol Did Work

"We were now in the Narrows, where the harbor is about three-quarters of a mile wide. The Imo cut into us about a third through the deck and hold, and the benzol poured into it and caused a cloud to arise from the vessel forward. I saw there was no hope of doing anything more, and I knew that an explosion was inevitable so the boats were lowered and all hands got aboard them and rowed for the Dartmouth shore. Pilot McKay went with us. In all there were 41 men aboard the Mont Blanc. She was headed at the time for the Halifax shore and toward pier 8. She was making very little headway as we had to push the boat away from the side. This was about twenty minutes before the explosion, but the picric acid was in flames, it did not explode. In the meantime the Imo had backed away toward the Dartmouth shore. We landed and ran into the woods. About twenty minutes after we left the ship we heard the explosion. It knocked nearly everyone of us down and we were struck by bits of trees and other things, but only the gunner was seriously injured. He has since died."

BOLSHEVIKI ORDER RESENTED BY UI IN MANCH

PEKIN, Dec. 8.—The councilors' and workmen's deputes bin, Manchuria, on the trans railway line, have received from Nikolai Lenine, the premier in Petrograd, order council to assume control of the railway and the Russia frontier.

The Chinese Eastern railway workers' union has protested this action as bringing in interference. The railway by their determination to support Gen. Horvath, the Russian commander at Harbin, states it is impossible for either the authorities or the local organs to recognize the Bolsheviki rule

HALIFAX RELIEF FUND

The issue of The Leader announcing the opening of its columns for subscriptions to a fund for the relief of the sufferers from the terrible Halifax disaster had hardly been delivered to the homes of Regina citizens yesterday morning before subscriptions began to come into this office, indicating very clearly that people were only awaiting an avenue through which to send their contributions in order to come to the relief of their afflicted fellow Canadians.

The Saskatchewan government will make a substantial grant to the Halifax relief funds, and the government has constituted itself a central committee for the whole province, with Hon. C. A. Dunning, provincial treasurer, as treasurer of the Saskatchewan Halifax relief fund. All patriotic organizations in the province are asked to interest themselves in this fund, while the press as a whole has been asked to open their columns for subscriptions.

The need of the people of the stricken city cannot be overstated. It is estimated that 25,000 people have been rendered homeless largely among the working classes and the poorer people. They have lost everything. In addition, thousands are injured, while thousands of women and children have suffered the loss of husbands and fathers upon whom they depended for support.

It is impossible to over-subscribe the amount needed. The Leader therefore urges all its readers to contribute as generously as possible, and to do so AT ONCE. The money is needed NOW to buy the necessaries of life—food, clothing and the provision of shelter for these people.

THE JOY OF MOTHERHOOD

Words of Encouragement to Childless Women.

Motherhood is woman's natural desti-but many women are denied the piness of children simply because of e curable derangement.
Among the many triumphs of Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is marvelous power to overcome such angements, as evidenced by the foling letter:—

Worcester, Mass.—“I suffered from ale ills, and was advised to have an operation, but a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and who has six children, told me to try it. It has helped me so much that I am now well and have a baby boy who is the picture of health, and I thank the Vegetable

Compound for my restoration to health.”
Mrs. BERT GARVEY, 20 Hacker St., Worcester, Mass.

In many other homes, once childless, there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

The Canadian Credit Men's association, Regina branch, has taken a step forward in initiating a competition in the Regina Public schools among the pupils of Grade VII and VIII. The competition will be closed by an essay on fire prevention and to the three first essays will be attached three prizes, a gold medal for first, a silver medal for second and a bronze medal for third. The gold medal has already been donated by E. B. Stevens, of Can-street railway systems the amendment was brought down. The present Railway act is clear that such systems must be of the two-man type, that is a motorman and conductor to each car. Some of the cities were anxious that they should be at liberty to operate a one-man system. The government, he continued, was not committed to the proposal in any way.

The amendment provides that any city having a street car system may use the one-man system providing the citizens, the majority of them, give their consent by way of a referendum.
"It is my desire to have the bill referred to the committee on private bills and railways" said Mr. Dunning.
"In order that all interests may have an opportunity of putting their views forward. Some have signified disapproval of the one-man system and it is in order that all views may be presented that this action has been taken."

The bill was read a second time and referred to the committee on private bills and railways.
