I am sending this email as I am very concerned that Bill 27, will not be passed.

Protection of animals, who can not speak speak for themselves is long over due.

No animal should be put thru surgery that Vets will not do themselves, as it causes them pain and is just for cosmetic reasons.

Those that do, what a Vet will no longer do, with no surgical skills, painkillers or medical equipment, to my mind are cruel and do not care for the animals they hurt and may possibly be endangering their future health.

It seems that they are only concerned for the money they make.

I'm hoping that common sense and cool heads will prevail.

Sincerely yours Joan and Ivan MacLeod.
