Hello,

Can I please have the following comments submitted for reading at the Public Bills Committee meeting March 17th?

Public accountability is critical for proper governance. As we all know, the legislation proposed in Bill 1 reduces accountability by allowing the government to keep information hidden from the public, including the Auditor General's report. Limiting the amount of time that Opposition MLAs can speak in the Legislature, and shutting out media from Province House, or allowing the government to "bypass" the media is a clear movement toward autocracy. Stop this Bill. This is not what you campaigned on, Tim Houston, and it's not representative of the desires of the Nova Scotian population. Shame on you, Tim Houston.

Thank you,

Travis DeWolf
