To Whom it May Concern,

I feel I must write in about the overreaching and undemocratic bills this Conservative government is tabling. There was no consultation about these proposed changes and I firmly stand against them. Bill 1 aims to rid the government of responsibility by allowing them to fire non-unionized civil servants without cause. It aims to reduce transparency by enabling the government to reject any FOIPOP request it doesn't like and would also dissolve Communications Nova Scotia. All this can only make one wonder what this government is trying to hide by removing all forms of dissent.

This bill should be withdrawn immediately and entirely and the people who tabled it should be ashamed.

Sincerely,

Paul Lee
