Dear Premiere Houston,

I am very unhappy with your government's plan to lift bans on resource attraction without any public consultation.

This ban was something all three parties had agreed on. You were elected with a promise to focus on healthcare and housing. The decision to lift the ban on resource extraction was not part of the platform your party ran on and so you do not have a mandate for such action.

I implore you to allow Nova Scotians to determine what is best for them.

With great concern for our land and water ,

Paula Simpson-O'Brien
