Speaker's Decisions

Use of the word "theatrical" during debate in the House is not inherently unparliamentary [Hansard p. 4434, Nov. 2, 2022]), 4471

Speaker's Rulings

A motion by the member for Halifax Chebucto to hold an emergency debate on the housing crisis for seniors in Nova Scotia under Rule 43(1) is refused as the issue has been addressed through other bills, 4601
*An alleged incident of intimidation by the Premier did not impair the parliamentary duties of the member for Cumberland North [Hansard p.
2724, April 22, 2022], 3888*
Premier's communication with the Clerk over whether part of a debate was out of order did not threaten the independence of the Clerks [Hansard p. 3629, October 19, 2022], 3713
The Premier cannot be questioned on his influence over the position of Speaker during Question Period [Hansard p. 3311, October 13, 2022], 3313
The Premier has not engaged in an act of intimidation of the Speaker that breached his privilege and affected the Leader of the Opposition and other members in the discharge of their duties [Hansard p. 3315, October 14, 2022], 3440

There is insufficient evidence that the Member for Glace Bay-Dominion made an unparliamentary remark off the record while the Member for Halifax Atlantic had the floor [Hansard p. 3656, October 19, 2022], 3714

There was no prima facie breach of privilege by the Minister of Economic Development in an alleged incident of intimidation against the Member for Bedford Basin [Hansard p. 2722, April 22, 2022], 3885

SPEAKER'S DECISIONS

Use of the word "theatrical" during debate in the House is not inherently unparliamentary [Hansard p. 4434, Nov. 2, 2022]), 4471

SPEAKER'S RULINGS

A motion by the member for Halifax Chebucto to hold an emergency debate on the housing crisis for seniors in Nova Scotia under Rule 43(1) is refused as the issue has been addressed through other bills, 4601

An alleged incident of intimidation by the Premier did not impair the parliamentary duties of the member for Cumberland North
[Hansard p. 2724, April 22, 2022], 3888

Premier's communication with the Clerk over whether part of a debate was out of order did not threaten the independence of the Clerks
[Hansard p. 3629, October 19, 2022], 3713

The Premier cannot be questioned on his influence over the position of Speaker during Question Period [Hansard p. 3311, October 13, 2022], 3313

The Premier has not engaged in an act of intimidation of the Speaker that breached his privilege and affected the Leader of the Opposition and other members in the discharge of their duties [Hansard p. 3315, October 14, 2022], 3440

There is insufficient evidence that the Member for Glace Bay-Dominion made an unparliamentary remark off the record while the Member for Halifax Atlantic had the floor [Hansard p. 3656, October 19, 2022], 3714

There was no prima facie breach of privilege by the Minister of Economic Development in an alleged incident of intimidation against the Member for Bedford Basin [Hansard p. 2722, April 22, 2022], 3885
